Welcome. I am here to build this vacation with you. Your website is not built yet, so this chat is the whole workspace until it is actually up. Tell me the trip basics: where you are going, when you leave and come back, who is coming, and what matters most. If family or friends are coming, we can welcome them onto this vacation as collaborators. View access lets them see the days. Edit access lets them add notes after you approve an email invite. They join from that email, accept the terms, and then this vacation opens. Type in the box, tap the microphone to the right of it and speak, or use the paperclip for photos, reservations, and notes.

T2 CRAIG [n=2 · beat=open] okay voice note dumping - sorry it's a ramble. Big Island Hawai'i, not Oahu. We leave Friday April third and come home Sunday April twelfth, twenty twenty-six. Base is a house in Kailua-Kona. SpeediShuttle from the airport, then groceries the same day. Kimberly wants gardens. Tyler wants a swim, including one later in the week if the beach is windy. Lauren does not want two big activities stacked on the same day. Kids are Torren who is eight, Peyton who is six, Keegan who is four, and Fallon who is two and mostly quiet. Marcus Chen can look, and Aunt Jean can edit notes later. Four friends are still unnamed. What matters most is the people and a loose week. I am talking this out so you have the whole trip before we shape days.

Got the whole trip now. So it's you, Kimberly, Tyler, Lauren, and the four kids for a nice long week at the Kailua-Kona house starting April 3rd. I'm building the itinerary from that intake dump. First, about Marcus Chen and Aunt Jean: you can invite them as collaborators. View access lets them see the days. Edit access lets them add notes after you approve an email invite. They join from that email, accept the terms, and then this vacation opens. For your own planning, there's also an unlimited vacations for the whole year plan you can take. Now, for the days. We'll keep it loose as you wanted. We'll get groceries near the house on Friday the 3rd after the shuttle. Kimberly's gardens are set for Sunday the 5th and Thursday the 9th. For Tyler's swims, we have one on Monday the 6th and another later in the week on Friday the 10th. If the weather doesn't cooperate on Monday, the backup is the house pool that same day. That way we're never stacking two big things and Lauren's request is covered.

Got it - Friday the 3rd is all about settling in. SpeediShuttle brings the whole crew straight to the Kailua-Kona house, then it's just a quick stop for groceries nearby before everyone unwinds. No extra outings, just unpacking, beach toys out of the bags, and letting the kids stretch their legs in the yard. We'll keep the energy low, lights out early so the grown-ups can actually hear themselves think.

Sunday the 5th starts with coffee and toast at the house, then the crew piles into the car around 9:30 a.m. after the little ones finish breakfast. Kimberly leads the way to the gardens - her favorite morning, so we'll keep it unhurried and light. The kids can bring a small notebook to draw flowers. The note about the garden lives right under Sunday's day plan, labeled clearly as Kimberly's garden time so everyone knows it's her moment.

If Monday the 6th rains, the beach swim shifts to the house pool that same day-same time, same energy, just under cover. Tyler still gets his swim, the kids stay happy, and no one's scrambling. We keep the Friday the 10th swim locked in as planned, so there's still a second water day later. This way, even if the ocean's moody, the rhythm holds and Tyler's not left waiting.

For Tuesday the 7th, with all eight of you, let's keep the options simple and on the island. One choice is a morning swim at the beach, letting the kids play in the sand while the adults relax nearby. The other is a casual town walk in Kailua-Kona, browsing the shops and stopping for shave ice. Both are low-key and won't crowd the day. Walk me through Thursday April ninth? Kimberly wanted a second garden or a town walk, and Lauren should not stack a second big activity that day. Can Marcus Chen and Aunt Jean each choose view access or edit access?

T15 APP [n=15 · beat=Set Thursday plan and clarified collaborator access. · model=deepseek/deepseek-v3.2 · tier=3]

For Thursday April 9th, Kimberly's second garden morning is already set, so we'll keep that as the gentle anchor for the day. After that, the group can decide between staying at the house for lunch or taking that casual town walk she mentioned. Lauren's request is key here—we won't add any other outing or big activity, so the afternoon stays free for the house pool or just relaxing on the lanai with the kids. Regarding Marcus Chen and Aunt Jean, yes, each can choose their own access level. When you send the invite, you can select whether they receive view access or edit access. View access lets them see the full itinerary, while edit access allows them to add notes and suggestions directly to the days. So Thursday shapes up as a quiet follow-up to Sunday, with Kimberly's garden time in the morning and the flexibility for a leisurely stroll later if everyone feels up to it. That keeps the pace easy for Torren, Peyton, Keegan, and Fallon, and honors Lauren's wish not to stack plans.

Got it - Friday the 3rd wraps groceries right after the shuttle drops everyone at the Kailua-Kona house, so the coolers get stocked fast. The crew will want snacks on hand for the kids after travel, plus breakfast for Saturday morning. From Saturday through Thursday, the kitchen stays busy with family meals - pancakes, grilled fish, fruit bowls - all made at the house unless someone speaks up to eat out. Friday the 10th is the one planned dinner, a chance to celebrate the trip's end with a proper meal. The rest of the time, it's easy dinners, messy plates, and Fallon feeding peas to the gecko under the table.

Got it. With Fallon at two, naps and early bedtimes will shape the rhythm-mornings are golden for gardens and swims when everyone's fresh. Torren and Peyton can handle a town walk if it's slow with treats, but we'll keep it optional, not rushed. Keegan's four, so sandcastles and pool splashes are perfect, but big crowds or loud spots are out. We'll protect downtime, especially after lunch, so the little ones aren't pushed. That means you can see the garden days on Sunday the 5th and Thursday the 9th, add notes about the blooms, and help plan those gentle afternoons with the kids. The rhythm is really shaped around the little ones-Fallon's naps, Keegan's sandcastle time, and making sure Torren and Peyton have space to just be kids. It's all about those in-between moments at the house, not a packed list. You'll have a full view of the plan, from stocking groceries on Friday the 3rd to that final swim and dinner on Friday the 10th. Everything stays right here on the Big Island, with the Kailua-Kona house as your home base.

It's smart to have some unscheduled time built into the trip. That way, you can all relax and go with the flow. It's going to be a wonderful time for Craig, Kimberly, Tyler, Lauren, Torren, Peyton, Keegan, and Fallon. | interimReply.model: google/gemini-2.5-flash-lite | interimReply.ms: 850 | genOnlyMs: draft=4416 rewrite=4813 | realPerTurnMs: 11043 | sessionE2eMs: 218765 | rewriteFailReason: none | rewriteAttempt: qwen/qwen3-235b-a22b-2507 4813ms ok | flagged: false | jevScoreRaw: 2.76 | jevDisposition: keep | jevFixFocus: keep
